WoW at Mayor's Ball

Women of Wandsworth are very pleased to have been invited to the Mayor's Ball this year to support the Mayor's charities RAPt and Dyslexia. It was lovely to see many of our friends from local businesses and charities at this mayoral extravaganza and to be able make a difference to someone's life not only through donations, but also through supporting Mayor's charities directly .

Biscotti Network

WoW Mums Sandra Munoz Alvarez and Senia Dedic joined Lorraine Rees, a self employed Mum from Thomas's School to set up the Clapham Junction Business Biscotti networking group as an extension to WoW Mums Enterprise Club, which supports local Mums and Dads in setting up their small businesses and networking amongst themselves.

Additional bonus is branching out to whole London through Biscotti extensive network. Next meeting is on 17th June in Revolution cafe from 10am—12. Info at 07940401366

Give and Gain

Give and Gain networking event for local community organisations and charities has been organised by Business in the Community, which is funded by The Prince's Responsible Business Network. Members work together to tackle a wide range of issues that are essential for building a fairer society and a more sustainable future. The enormous economic, social and environmental issues that are challenging today's business models means leaders have to find new and imaginative ways to respond and change the way they operate. Responsible business is about managing growth responsibly while reducing dependency on natural resources. It is how a business operates as an employer, supplier and how as a neighbor it can help create vibrant communities.

Mayor Making Ceremony

WoW Mums have been kindly invited to Mayor Making Ceremony by Cllr Simon Hogg, who became the Opposition Leader on the same day as the new Worshipful Mayor of Wandsworth Cllr Richard Field was inaugurated. We are very happy that

Solar in Haven Lodge

Women of Wandsworth have discussed the increasing air pollution in Battersea, especially in Clapham Junction, at our latest parent forum. It is encouraging that we have hybrid buses now and it is particularly commendable that the Council have installed the solar panels in Haven Lodge, sheltered housing accommodation to pay for the electricity in communal areas of the Lodge. Solar panels are also installed on top of the Wandsworth Town Hall to help reduce carbon footprint. We wish that the residents can have them in our estates, too.

Inter-Generational Art Exhibition

After several inter-generational educational and therapeutic art workshops with Mel Barry, WoW Mums, WoW Kids and Haven Lodge residents went to lovely Magic Garden to see their artwork exhibited as part of Wandsworth Art Fringe Festival.

Residents were very happy to spend a day in the lovely garden, have a nice lunch with the children and to take part in several other art workshops organised there by 'Move' Exhibition. Next WoW Mums event is our annual BBQ in Haven Lodge on Saturday, 11th June.

Local Art Talk

Returning to the Festival for the third consecutive year, Happenings workshops and talks are led by established artists in a supportive and relaxed environment for all ages.

We enjoy an informal chat with some of the artists on 9th May, whose work is on display in Mason's Arms, Battersea until August, such as Local icons by etcher Mandana Khonsari, photographer Ricky Leaver, illustrator Glyn Goodwin, dance inspired sketches in paint by Wandsworth based sculptor Christopher Guest as well as aquarelles by Senia Dedic, emerging artist and Battersea resident.
