Christmas Panto

WoW Mums and WoW Kids went to see Peter Pan Panto at the Town Hall. We all had fun and a good laugh. Children enjoyed the interaction with Tinkerbell and Peter Pan warning them that Captain Hook is behind them. They all had a good dance at the end of the show. We even had photos taken with actors after the show.

Thank you so much to Enable for the tickets discount.

Mayor's Christmas Party

Women of Wandsworth have been invited by the Worshipful Mayor of Wandsworth Cllr Juliana Annan to the Mayor's Christmas Party in Marble Hall this month to celebrate Christmas and to support Mayor's charities: Black Minds Matter, KLS, and Keeping Families Together.

It was lovely to celebrate with other community organisation, charities, businesses and residents, but most of all it was so amazing to hear Julianna lead in singing Carols together with others in her beautiful voice. May the next year be as successful as this one and even better and more prosperous. Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Photo: Mayor and Senia

WoW Party For Elderly

WoW Christmas Party in Holmleigh Court with our elderly friends was fun, but the St.Peter's Choir made it even better with singing Carols and sharing their lovely goody bags with each resident. Thank you to A&P Foundation and to Joe Wieczorek, our volunteer for supporting us and a big thank you to St.Peter's church for joining us.

Solstice

WoW Mums are so grateful for free tickets for WoW Families to see the fantastic Solstice interactive and educational exhibition, explaining the importance of the Winter Solstice and Christmas celebration with Father Christmas.

Women in Business Party

WoW Enterprise Club attended the Women in Business Network Christmas Party, organised by Victoria Asante, Mayor's Consort in Rafayel Hotel, Versace room. It was a good opportunity to meet all other entrepreneurs and celebrate with good food and dancing. Photo: Entrepreneurs Sandra, Senia and Deepika

WoW Christmas Party

Highlight of the year is WoW Mums' Christmas Party with our families, celebrating our children's successes and having fun, dancing and receiving gifts from Mrs. Santa in Santa's grotto. Thank you to Oddono's Gelati for free ice-cream for all children. May the next year be as good as this one and even better.

WoW Karate Championship

WoW Karate Championship this term has been very successful with two Karate schools taking part: WoW Karate and Buna Kazoku Karate, competing in sparring fights for gold medals. Thank you to Sensei Andrew Beech, Black Belt Second Dan for refereeing the competition and his two assistants Sensei Katie and Giulia, who recently became WoW Karate Masters with Black belts, after learning for 10 years at the WoW Karate school.
