Christmas Trip to Bath

Kambala Estate Residents Association, led by Donna Barham have organised a community trip to Christmas Fair in Bath this month. Women of Wandsworth and Big Local SW11 funded the free tickets for the elderly residents of Haven Lodge, who appreciated very much such a splendid opportunity to travel out of London and enjoy the Christmas fun in Bath. It was a lovely, joyful occasion to meet other residents from Battersea and to have three generations singing Christmas songs together on the coach. There was a lot to see and eat in Bath, especially the traditional festive goodies and treats. Women of Wandsworth have organised an intergenerational New Years party for the residents of Haven Lodge and John Kirk House on 15th January 2016, together with the helpers from Thames Christian School.

Christmas Pantomime

WoW Mums and WoW Kids are very grateful to Daytrippers organisation for the free tickets to see Cinderella Christmas Pantomime in Lyric Theatre. We enjoyed the audience interaction, the fake snow, meeting the actors after the show and all the spectacle of a truly enchanting story. WoW!

Annual WoW Christmas disco party with Santa's Grotto is a WoW Mums tradition for the last eight years. The whole community looks forward to this event, especially the Karate kids and Mums who love dancing. Special thank you to Syeda who cooked curry for 100 people while being ill.

WoW Drama Show

Children from our neighborhood and all local schools attended WoW Drama class this term. They have been practicing 15 new dance routines over the last 10 weeks including: Flamenco, Salsa, Conga, Michael Jackson's Moon Walk, Bachata, YMCA and many more. WoW Mum Sandra Munoz Alvarez has filmed it all with the green screen and has edited a pop video spectacle to show their parents and wider audience. Thank you to our funders Wandsworth Near Neighbor and a big thank you to WoW Mums Sandra and Clara (in the photo) for delivering these classes. Next Drama course starts on Thursday, 14th January 2016. Please register your place by calling 07940401366.
