WoW Mums AGM

Worshipful Mayor of Wandsworth attended the eleventh WoW Mums AGM and presented the awards to thank the WoW volunteers for giving their time to make Wandsworth a better place to live in. WoW Mums would like to thank our funders, who supported our projects for elderly, parents and children. WoW Mum Gema Gil has been a WoW Treasurer and a WoW Karate administrator volunteer for the last 8 years and has been a Sheppard House RA Chair.

WoW at Men's Shed

Battersea Man's Shed celebrated their achievements this month with the premier of their film, made and edited by Sandra

Munoz Alvarez, CEO of Keepsake Videos. Member's Library room in Battersea Art Centre was transformed into a small cinema, where everyone watched this uplifting film with Deputy Mayor Cllr Jane Cooper, Elaine Curley and Semih Sener.

AGE UK Top Volunteer

AGE UK gave a special thanks to Sandra Munoz Alvarez, who volunteers for their newest service - Digipals. Sandra gives her time every week to provide friendly computer support to older people around the borough. Sandra is supportive and patient with everyone. She interacts with and delights in sharing the benefits of computers and the internet with AGE UK service users. Indeed, she has also made a short film, in her own time, to support the service and demonstrate how getting online can help older people. Sandra we salute you!

WoW at NHS CCG Event

WoW Mums were invited, as a previous CCG grant user, to attend the Wandsworth Clinical Commissioning Group's report on community grants. WoW Mums Senia Dedic and Syeda Islam (in the photo) were very pleased with the new opportunity to work with the CCG and deliver another WoW service to improve the NHS.

Children's Centre Service

Event in York Gardens Library to save the Children's Centre Service was attended by local parents and MP Marsha de Cordova.

WoW Dinner in Haven Lodge

Worshipful Mayor and Mayoress of Wandsworth attended our inter-generational dinner in Haven Lodge, as our special guests to celebrate our 9th year of providing regular and free inter-generational events in Battersea for three generations to bridge the gap between the elderly and the youth. This was a very first project of this kind to start in local sheltered accommodations back in 2010, to alleviate loneliness and isolation of elderly in our community. Special bond has been forged between our elderly neighbors and WoW, whom we involved in all local events and celebrations.

WoW in Job Centre

WoW Mums Enterprise Club has been invited by Wandsworth Job Centre Plus to take part in a mini jobs fair for women, with aim to pay special attention to problems, which women have with employability, especially with childcare as catch 22.

Next job fair in Wandsworth Job Centre is on 15th February from 10am. Photo: WoW Mum Senia Dedić, Rupa Patel, Wandsworth JC Employment Adviser and Kuljit Chagar, Shepards Bush JC Employment Adviser
