WoW Parcels for Christmas

Janet Crawley, one of our first elderly friends
since 2010

WoW Mums delivered Christmas Goody bags to our elderly friends in Haven Lodge and John Kirk Lodge on Christmas Day. They were happy with our food, toiletries and a gift, but they were more pleased to see us all, masked up, to tell us how they feel about being alone on Christmas Day. Others were in isolation and some were happy to pull a Christmas cracker with others. They were very pleased to see that they were not forgotten. We would like to thank our funders Battersea United Charities for supporting our Christmas project.

WoW Karate

WoW Karate will start on Saturday, 6th February in Katherine Low Settlement. Please register by calling 07811660580. This term will be delivered via zoom, due to lockdown. We would like to thank our partners Thomas's Foundation for continually funding this WoW project to make our children transitioning from primary to secondary school more vigilant.

WoW Support for Elderly

WoW Mum Senia delivering food to elderly residents of John Kirk and Haven Lodge

As Government has advised us all to stay at home, especially the elderly, it is not easy for residents of local lodges to get the food and supplies, so community organisations play a crucial role in making sure they have enough to live on.

It is very refreshing that our community organisations have stepped up and came to the rescue of our most vulnerable residents—the elderly. Next delivery is next week.

M&Ms for Children of Key Workers

Women of Wandsworth are grateful for the donation of M&Ms sweets from Rotary International for children of key workers still attending Christ Church school in Battersea. Key workers are their parents whose work is critical for dealing with Covid 19 and who are dealing with EU Transition, according to Government info.

Clinical Commissioning Group

WoW Mums have been invited to NHS meeting via zoom, as partners of Clinical Commissioning Group to discuss the challenges of hate crime delivered by Mark Wolski, Vulnerabilities Manager for Wandsworth Council. Tackling hate crime is a priority for Wandsworth Community Safety Partnership. The purpose of this meeting was to learn how to seek assistance and receive the advice on how the team addresses the hate crime in Wandsworth. Support is offered through development of Hate Crime forum that seeks to communicate, collaborate, co-ordinate, whilst also being a critical friend. Key issues were recognising hate crime, under-reporting hate crime and confidence in the system.

Hot Food For Elderly

Thank you to Furloughed Foodies, professional chefs for cooking hot meals for the elderly residents in John Kirk House and in Haven Lodge in Battersea. This has been received with great gratitude for the Chefs' cooking for them and the WoW Mums linking them, so they would get more hot meals as Covid 19 support.

This will become a regular delivery of hot food together with WoW Mums' deliveries of non-perishables.

Home-made Cakes for Elderly

Thank you to Flora Yu from Your Cakes for donating 100 mini cakes, muffins, biscuits, scones and tarts baked by local ladies to thank the key workers for their selfless work to help the community. WoW Mums have delivered them to our elderly friends in John Kirk and Haven Lodge in Battersea. Lodge Wardens appreciated the time and effort by the members of our community to help the elderly in this way and show them that they are not forgotten.

WoW Enterprise Club

WoW Enterprise Club members attended via zoom the Edge of the Box business workshop for small entrepreneurs and start-ups, organised by Chelsea Foundation. Marketing Strategy is an integral component to growing the business and we were shown how to build a digital marketing strategy and learn about different digital marketing channels available and how they can be applied to connect and engage with potential customers.
