WoW Trip to Cornwall

the castle were full of mystery and crystal clear water. After swimming and surfing at Fistral beach, we enjoyed the long Cornish walks along the sea coast, from Newquay towards Padstow. Thank you to our funders Battersea United Charities for supporting these WoW

WoW Mums annual and educational trip to the seaside was exhilarating this year. With three new families, we went all the way to Tintagel Castle in Cornwall, to see the birth place of legendary King Arthur. Caves under community educational trips and to Wandsworth Housing Dept. for funding our transport for this trip from the Community Champion fund to help our local families.

WoW Karate Championship

WoW Mums partnership with Thomas's Foundation is entering the 12th year of serving our community with affordable Karate classes for our local community. Next WoW Karate term starts on Saturday, 18th September 2021 in Katherine Low Settlement.

WoW Food Deliveries

WoW Mum Senia and volunteers are still delivering free food to our elderly friends in John Kirk lodge. We have attended the APPG (All Party Political Group) meeting on inter-generational problems and help available in our local communities. It is remarkable how the local people selflessly help the more vulnerable and those in need in their neighborhood. This has become the only positive in this pandemic, as people quickly came together to help each other.
