WoW Tea Party

WoW Mums organised a Summer Tea Party for elderly residents in Holmleigh Court, sheltered accommodation in Battersea, to celebrate Volunteers Week.

We remembered our elderly friends who have passed away this summer, due to their illnesses and some due to extreme heat. Next event is in autumn.

Pop Symphonic

WoW Mums attended fantastic concert at Battersea Park with Royal Philharmonic orchestra arrangements to pop classics. Wonderful end to the summer holidays, dancing the night away with friends and neighbours. It was lovely to see families with children enjoy dancing throughout the evening, after a picnic and refreshments.

Solar Eclipse

It was incredible to see the 92% solar eclipse in UK with our children who had never experienced it. This was a hands on memorable lesson in astronomy and an actual experience of the perpetual movement of celestial objects.

13,000 WoW Members

WoW Mums Facebook page reached 13,000 members this month with a significant impact on our small organisation. This large community reach gives WoW Mums a stronger voice when advocating for social and community issues and attracts more volunteers to join our organisation to help with our ongoing community support. It gives us a stronger community presence and enables us to reach and support a large number of families who need help. Through our membership, we can reach our goals and have more sustainability.

Free Food Delivery

We are continuing to deliver free food over the summer to our elderly friends in John Kirk Lodge and in Holmleigh Court, sheltered accommodation in Battersea to make sure that our friends are safe and content. Volunteer Joe makes sure that the deliveries are on time, so everyone will know when the food is available.

We are glad that the elderly, on low income get nutritional food to provide more balanced diet and provide immediate assistance to people facing financial difficulties. This builds community spirit, which encourages kindness, cooperation and mutual support. We started supplying free food over the pandemic, but it turned into a lovely community bond.
